

NextLvl Revenue Share Policy

Introduction

At NextLvl, we believe in the value of your creativity and hard work. That's why we've implemented a unique revenue share model that ensures you're rewarded for the content you produce. This document outlines our policy for revenue sharing and additional benefits for our content creators.

Revenue Share

Approved articles and/or videos will earn up to $1-$3 per 1,000 views. The payout is on an honor system, and we encourage you to contact us for more details regarding benefits.

Please note that the viewership payout is at a $10 minimum and in $10 intervals (i.e., $10, $20, $30). Payouts are made on the first business day of each month.

Additional Benefits

In addition to revenue share, we offer the following benefits to our content creators:

1. Exposure: Approved articles and/or videos will be featured on our platform and across all of our social media platforms.
2. NextLvl Merch: Consistent creators will receive free NextLvl Merch as a token of our appreciation.

Disclaimers

Please note that these benefits are new and just beginning to roll out. The disclaimers provided here are to give a brief insight into our guidelines. They are for the protection of us and our creators.

NextLvl payout is at the sole discretion of ownership and can be denied for ANY reason, including but not limited to artificial viewership and copyrighted material.

Vision, Mission, and Values

Before submitting an application, please take the time to look over our vision, mission, and values. We believe in creating a community that shares these principles, and we expect all our content creators to uphold them.
